WHEREAS, on November 18, 2008, the Town Council of the Town of Loxahatchee Groves adopted Ordinance No. 2008-008 which extended the Moratorium up to and including

May 30, 2009, in order to provide additional time for the Town to adopt its Comprehensive Plan and its Land Development Regulations; and

WHEREAS, on May 19, 2009, the Town Council adopted ordinance 2009-002, which extended the moratorium to February 28, 2010; and,

ORDINANCE NO. 2010-001

WHEREAS, it is anticipated, at this time, that the Town will conclude the administrative challenge to the Town's Comprehensive Plan and adopt its Land Development Regulations on or before July 1, 2010; and

WHEREAS, the Town Council of the Town of Loxahatchee Groves has determined that it is in the best interests of the citizens of the Town of Loxahatchee Groves to extend the Moratorium on the processing of certain applications for development orders and development permits, as specified in the earlier moratorium ordinances and subject to the exception set forth herein, as well as applications for amendments to the Town's Comprehensive Plan as set forth in previous moratorium ordinances and subject to the exception set forth herein, to provide time for the Town to conclude its administrative challenge to its own municipal Comprehensive Plan to govern new development within the Town, and adopt its own land development regulations; and

WHEREAS, the Town Council recognizes that the final approval of its Comprehensive Plan, and adoption of its Land Development Regulations, has taken longer than originally anticipated, and that there are property owners and development applicants that are desirous to have the Town commence review of their development applications, and who understand that any final approval will have to be consistent with the requirements of the Town's Comprehensive Plan when approved with finality and the Town's Land Development Regulations when adopted by the Town Council, and therefore the Town Council finds it reasonable and in the best interest of the Town to provide certain exceptions to the moratorium to permit the acceptance and review of certain applications under the condition that the applicant agrees to be bound by the Town's Comprehensive Plan, or in the case of a Comprehensive Plan Amendment that it be consistent with
